The Université Clermont Auvergne was awarded in 2017 a label I-Site by the French Ministry of Higher Education and Research for the CAP 20-25 project.

IDGM+ plays a major role in the fourth Challenge of the project: “Natural Risks and socio-economic vulnerability” which deals with complex interactions between human societies and natural shocks, including volcanic risks in developing countries.

The CERDI contributes through its research on vulnerability and adaptation strategies in developing countries.

More info: cap2025.fr

https://cerdi.uca.fr/english-version/i-site