2022 Global Development
Conference: Tax Policy for

Sustainable Development

In 2022, the Global Development Conference will focus on Tax Policy for Sustainable Development. The Global Development Network (GDN), the Center for Studies and Research on International Development (CERDI), the Foundation for Studies and Research on International Development \(FERDI\) (<https://ferdi.fr/en>) and the University of Clermont-Auvergne (UCA), are collaborating to host this conference in the French city of Clermont-Ferrand on 2-4, November 2022.

The event will be held in hybrid format to allow for broader participation, while aiming still for a large contingent to attend in person. The majority of participants will be from developing countries.

Papers should address one of the following thematic issues:

- Resource mobilization;
- Taxes and incentives;
- Tax systems, inclusion and inequality.

Selection of the papers will be made in two stages, first on the basis of an extended abstract and then the full paper.

Those interested should submit the abstract of their paper (between 300-800 words) by May 23, 2022, 11:59 pm CET through the following link(<https://gdc2022.awardsplatform.com/>).
