Bernard Lompo, Kabinet Kaba, and Fayçal Sawadogo are starting their internship at the IMF this week.

- Bernard Lompo is joining the Regional Studies Division of the IMF’s Western Hemisphere Department where he will study the determining factors that contributed to the success or failure of the IMF-supported programs.
- Kabinet Kaba is posted at the Regional Studies Division in the African Department where he will work on the intra-African global value chains.
- Fayçal Sawadogo is joining the Tax Policy Division of the Fiscal Affairs Department and will analyze alcohol excise taxes.

Congratulations on their selection!
