Rabah Arezki rejoint le CERDI

The CERDI is very pleased to announce that Rabah Arezki has been recruited as Director of Research by the CNRS, The French National Centre for Scientific Research. He will be joining the CERDI in the coming academic year.

Rabah has obtained his PhD in Economics from the European University Institute. He previously served as Chief Economist and Vice President at the African Development Bank (AfDB), and as Chief Economist of the Middle East and North Africa Region. He has also worked as Head of the Commodities Unit of the Research Department at the International Monetary Fund (IMF). He is a Research Associate at Harvard University and at Ferdi.

Research Publications:

More (REPEC) https://ideas.repec.org/e/par153.html
In the media

The energy balancing act between security and transition, VoxEU, July 2022

Preventing developing economy debt disasters, OECD Development Matters, May 2022.

Africa’s Coup Wave, Project Syndicate, April 2022.

How Africa can reduce its reliance on commodities, The Economist, January 2022

To Fix Foreign Aid, Pay the Poor Directly, Foreign Policy, October 2021

Accelerating Africa’s economic transformation, LSE Business Review, September 2021

In the global race over 5G, liberalisation and regulatory independence are key, LSE Business Review, June 2022
(Arezki et al., 2017)