From a circular economy to a circular society: a holistic approach towards a resilient and sustainable economy

From a circular economy to a circular society: a holistic approach towards a resilient and sustainable economy

This conference brings together Franco-Finnish speakers and experts on the circular economy and sustainability science, coming from different research disciplines and different sectors. The event is organised by Embassy of France to Finland, Institut Français of Finland, CERDI (CNRS, Université Clermont Auvergne), European Centre of Excellence on Sustainability and the Finnish Innovation Fund Sitra.

The conference will be introduced by Agnès Cukierman, Ambassador of France to Finland, Emma Kari, Minister of the Environment and Climate Change of Finland and Petri Peltonen, Under-Secretary of State from the Ministry of Economic Affairs and Employment of Finland.

The keynote will be delivered by Mathieu Leporini, researcher at the European Center of Excellence on Sustainability, on the theme "From a circular economy to a circular society: a holistic approach towards a resilient and sustainable economy".

It will be followed by a panel discussion:

- Kari Herlevi, Director, Circular Economy for Biodiversity – The Finnish Innovation Fund Sitra(<https://www.sitra.fi/en/>);
- Susanna Lehvävirta, Research Director, Helsinki Institute of Sustainability Science – University of Helsinki(<https://www.helsinki.fi/en/helsinki-institute-sustainability-science>);
