

15 OCTOBRE

13h50 Accueil

14h00 - 17h00 Session I - salle 210

Pablo Álvarez-Aragón (University of Namur)
Ancestral Beliefs and Fertility in Sub-Saharan Africa

Eléonore Rouault (Université Paris-Dauphine)
Early-life weather shocks and long-term cognition in China

Cheick Camara (Université Clermont-Auvergne)
Building Credibility: How Gender Budget Transparency Boosts Commitment to Fiscal Policy and Women's Empowerment in Indian States

17h00 - 18h00

Conseils et témoignages pour les recrutements universitaires et les concours CNRS et IRD

19h30 Dîner au restaurant Le Devant
32 Rue des Gras, 63000 Clermont-Ferrand

16 OCTOBRE

9h30 - 12h30 Session II - salle 210

Karine Moukaddem (Aix Marseille School of Economics)
Arab Spring Protests and Marriage Markets: Evidence from Egypt

Mathilde Lesueur (Université Paris-Dauphine)
The Impact of Weather Shocks on the Efficiency of Child Marriage Bans

Xin Long (ESSEC Business School)
The Dollar Financing and Trade: Evidence from Chile

12h30 - 14h00 Déjeuner (Espace Kim Lavaud, 2e étage)

14h00 - 17h00 Session III - salle 210

Edouard Pignède (AgroParisTech)
Golden Cities? Artisanal Mining and Urbanization in Africa

Harouna Kinda (Université Clermont-Auvergne, UM6P)
The impact of Extractive Industries Transparency Initiative (EITI) Membership on Tax Revenue Mobilization in Resource-Rich Developing Countries

Dimitrios Argyros (University College Dublin)
Banks Protecting Children? Agricultural Income Shocks, Child Health and Financial Development in Rural India

17h00 - 18h00 Moment de convivialité (Espace Kim Lavaud)