It Takes Two to Tango. The Policy Mix a Decade After the Crisis
The Cerdi is organising a workshop on macroeconomic policies on January 30 and 31, 2020 to gather recent theoretical and empirical contributions on these critical issues. The organisers are Jean-Louis Combes and Alexandru Minea, Professors at the Université Clermont Auvergne, and Xavier Debrun, Visiting Professor at UCA and Advisor at the National Bank of Belgium.

International Scholars from European Universities (University College, London; Graduate Institute of Geneva; Paris School of Economics; EPFL, Lausanne; ENS Paris-Saclay; University of Amsterdam), and experts from international institutions (OECD, European Central Bank, etc), will meet up in Clermont-Ferrand to discuss the most recent advances in research.

The keynote speaker is Eric Leeper, University of Virginia, a leading expert in macroeconomics and monetary economics.

This workshop is held with the financial support of the French National Research Agency (Project reference: ANR-10-LABX-14-01).

To attend this workshop, you need to register by email before January 15, 2020. Please send an email to johan.guiot@uca.fr.
